

Afternoon of Christmas Eve

by George Vukelich

There are men who walk this way
hunting out places where rabbits stay.
We wave and pass this special day.

Out women are working out of sight
preparing the church for the Christ Child's night.
Fresh cut pine in the dark blue night.